Our World of Science

Category: Textbook Series

Our World of Science 1–8 builds on the milestones achieved through the books of the same series at the primary level. The secondary level books explore advanced scientific concepts in age-appropriate detail.

The series covers all the major concepts of biology, chemistry and physics. The books develop the conceptual, observational and analytical abilities of students to help them become independent learners and critical thinkers.

Key Features:

The following features help to achieve learning objectives in all these areas:

- ✓ Each unit begins with clearly stated learning objectives to help students focus their attention
- ✓ The course covers all essential topics from the secondary science curriculum
- ✓ The concepts are explained in simple and student-friendly language
- ✓ The character 'Faba' describes scientific facts and phenomena in a friendly manner
- ✓ Opportunities for practical lab work are provided through 'Think, Pair and Share' activities

Further Titles of this Series

Social Studies

Category: Textbook Series

Social Studies is a continuation of Fidem's Social Studies for Juniors Books 1–5. The secondary series for classes 6–8 extends students' knowledge of history, geography and civics from the basic concepts learned in primary classes, thereby ensuring logical progression of concepts.

The topics have been presented to stimulate students' curiosity about their society and country. Students are encouraged to learn about their environment and to become responsible citizens and develop civic sense.

Key Features:

The following features help to achieve learning objectives in all these areas:

- ✓ The series is based on the 'I do, I understand' philosophy and follows a hands-on, activity-based approach
- ✓ The series covers all key areas of the national curriculum
- ✓ Relevance of the historical events, geographical phenomena and other concepts to local context is emphasized throughout the series
- ✓ The books include activities that develop students' investigative research and analytical skills

Computer Science

Category: Textbook Series

Computer Science series is being prepared to familiarise the students with the development of latest technologies and information. Demonstrative illustrations and easy to understand language makes the learning experience fun for children. Activities are prepared so appropriately that students' understanding can be evaluated easily.

Key Features:

The following features help to achieve learning objectives in all these areas:

- ✓ Steps of opening and shutting down the computer are presented in a well-structured way
- ✓ Research work helps the students to explore the topic on their own and share it with others
- ✓ Puzzle and simple to-do exercises enhance the students' learning
- ✓ Glossary provides an alphabetical list of terms and their definitions used throughout the book
- ✓ The basic concept of most common softwares are explained in a structured manner using screenshots

Chapter 1 Major Themes of the Holy Qur'an

Objectives
Students will learn about:
1. The major theme(s) of the Qur'an that appears in each passage.
2. The importance of the theme(s) in the lives of Muslims today.

a) Allah ﷻ in Himself

1) Surah-Al-Baqarah 2, Verse: 255

255. Allah. There is no god but He, the Living, the Self-Subsisting, Eternal. No slumber can seize Him nor sleep. His are all things in the heavens and on the earth. Who is there can intercede in His presence except as He permits? He knows what is before them and what is behind them. And they will never encompass any of His knowledge except as He wills. His Throne extends over the heavens and the earth and He feels no fatigue in guarding and preserving them. And He is the Most High, the Supreme.

Main Theme
The theme of this long verse of Surah-Al-Baqarah is Allah ﷻ Himself. This verse is mentioned as "Ayat-al-Kursi" (The verse of the Throne), in the Ahadith and by the commentators (Mufasssin) of the Holy Qur'an. The concept of the Oneness of Allah ﷻ is clearly shown here, symbolizing His authority and power.

In Islam, Tawheed means the absolute Oneness of Allah ﷻ. His entire universe functions according to His commands. Therefore, He alone is worthy of worship and He alone has the control and session of all physical and spiritual things in the universe. Due to His unique attributes, everything on the earth and in the Heavens belongs to Him and He monitors it very subtly.

Chapter 3 The Life and Importance of The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ

The Muslims fought courageously and killed several non-believers. They demonstrated such a spirit of bravery that the non-believers started to flee. During the battle, Hamza displayed wonderful feats of gallantry against the overwhelming odds which stood unparalleled and created consternation and confusion in the disbelieving hosts. However, by trickery, he got martyred when Wahshi, a slave of Jubair bin Mut'im, speared him to death. Though the death of Hamza was a great loss for the Muslims, they maintained full control over the whole situation on the battlefield. However, when the small army of Islam were recording the second absolute and clear victory over the Makkans, the majority of the archers on the mountainside committed a fatal mistake that turned the whole situation upside down and constituted a source of heavy loss amongst the Muslims.

When the Makkani army began to flee the battlefield, the Muslim soldiers thought that they had gained victory and started collecting the war booty. When the archers, to whom a strict order was given to hold on to their position, saw that they forgot the orders of the Holy Prophet ﷺ and left their post to partake the booty, Abdullah bin Jubair reminded them about the Holy Prophet's warning but they did not listen to him. Only ten archers, including Abdullah bin Jubair, remained at their position. When Khalid bin Waleed (who was still a non-believer) saw that the Muslim archers had left their post, he went round to the other side of the mount of Uhud with his group and after killing the remaining few archers, attacked the Muslims who were busy in collecting the booty. At this, the Makkani army returned to counter attack the Muslims. When the Muslims found themselves under the swords of the enemy, they panicked and complete confusion prevailed among them. A lot of them got confused and did not know where to go. At this

The Battle of Uhud
13th Shawwal 3 A.H.
"And Allah did indeed fulfil His promise to you when you were killing them, (your enemy) with His permission, until (the moment) you lost your courage and fell to disputing about the order, and disobeyed after he showed you (of the booty) which you love."
(Surah-Bal-e-Ahzab, Verse:152)

A hypothetical scene of the battlefield of Uhud.

Objectives are fully defined at the starting of each chapter which help understand the core aim of the topic.

Simple yet lucid style of explanation of Qur'anic verses

The colourful hypothetical scenes of the battlefields help in retention of facts mentioned in the text.

Pictures of relics and illustrations are aptly used to convey the information in an attractive manner.

Chapter 1 Major Themes of the Holy Qur'an

It is excellent for relieving tension, which is a very common problem these days affecting many people. The purpose of this Surah being revealed was that it helped relieve the tension our Prophet Muhammad ﷺ was facing at that time. With reference to the believers, Surah-Al-Kauthar signifies Allah's ﷻ blessings and teaches them to be grateful to Allah ﷻ even in difficult circumstances, to do good work, to be kind to all beings and thus, to attain inner peace and dignity.

Since Allah ﷻ is the One who grants these blessings, we must turn to Him in adoration and thanksgiving and offer sacrifice for Him alone. This command was given when the worship of false gods and goddesses was common. The Qur'an says:

"Say: Truly my prayer and my service of sacrifice, my life and my death are (all) for Allah, the Cherisher of the worlds." (Surah-Al-An'am, Verse: 164)

Another strong message conveyed through this Surah is that Allah ﷻ grants manifest victory to that nation which is regular with prayers (Salah).

Lastly, there is the curse of non-fulfilment of hopes and evil desires for the enemies of the Prophet ﷺ, for all times to come. It serves as a warning that Allah ﷻ will deal with the mischief makers who try to defame the Holy Prophet ﷺ by indulging in blasphemous activities.

Selected calligraphic images motivate the faculty of vision.

Chapter 2 The History and Importance of the Holy Qur'an

Moreover, the Companions themselves were very keen to learn and memorise the Qur'an. In this regard, each one wanted to excel over the other. There were women who would demand nothing else as Mahr* from their husbands except that they should teach them the Qur'an. Many of the Companions rid themselves of the worldly luxuries and devoted their lives for the noble purpose of learning the Qur'an. They would memorise it and then continuously revise it. It is stated that whenever anyone migrated to Madinah from Makkah, the Holy Prophet ﷺ would entrust that person in the care of one of the Ansar ﷺ, so that he would teach the Qur'an to the newcomer.

Therefore, there were many Companions ﷺ who had memorised the Holy Qur'an during the time of the Holy Prophet ﷺ. There were thousands of Companions ﷺ who were Huffaz** of the Qur'an.

Among them more than one hundred and fifty Huffaz are prominently mentioned in the traditions. They included Abu Bakr ﷺ, Umar ﷺ, Uthman ﷺ, Ali ﷺ, Talha ﷺ, Sa'ad bin Abi Waqas ﷺ, Abdullah bin Masood ﷺ, Huzayfah bin Yaman ﷺ, Salim Maula Abi Huzayfah ﷺ, Abu Hurairah ﷺ, Abdullah bin Umar ﷺ, Abdullah bin Abbas ﷺ, Amr bin Al-Aas ﷺ, Muawiyah ﷺ, Abdullah bin Zubair ﷺ, Abdullah bin Sa'ib ﷺ, Umm-e-Salmah ﷺ, Ayesha ﷺ, Hafsa ﷺ, Umm-e-Waraqah ﷺ, Ubayy bin Ka'ab ﷺ, Maz' bin Jabal ﷺ, Anas bin Malik ﷺ, Abu Musa Al-Ashari ﷺ, Khalid bin Waleed ﷺ and other Companions ﷺ.

Hence during the time of the Prophet ﷺ, the Qur'an was written down and memorised by many Companions ﷺ and when he passed away, those materials on which the verses of Qur'an were written down, were found in his house. Abu Bakr ﷺ gathered all the materials and tied them with a string (Al-Iqan) so that nothing of it was lost. Many Companions ﷺ had individually compiled their own copy of the Qur'an.

The Verses of the Qur'an were written down on:

1. Pieces of Leather
2. Wooden Boards
3. Flat Stones
4. Shoulder Blades and ribs of camels and goats
5. Pieces of Papyrus
6. Palm Leaves

* Mahr is a gift given by the groom to the bride upon marriage. It is mandatory in Islam.
** Huffaz are the group of Hafiz, who have memorised the entire Qur'an.
